WINE LIST

You're holding in your hands the first wine list ever curated in its entirety by one of the world's most acclaimed wine critics, James Suckling, CEO/ Editor JamesSuckling.com.

He has rated more than 200,000 wines in his career and annually reviews more than 22,000 wines from key wine regions in France, Italy, Spain, Argentina, Chile, California, and Germany, even Thailand.

He rates the wines on a 100-point system: 95 points or more, fantastic quality; 90 points or more, outstanding quality, and 85 points or more, very good quality.

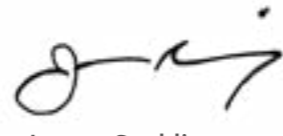

All wines featured on this list received a score of a minimum of 90 points and represent a very personal selection of wines that James enjoys drinking on his visits to The Nai Harn.

Instead of using traditional categories for wines in the list, James has organized them by style and usage, whether it's a fresh and crisp Thai Colombard for the pool or a structured red Bordeaux at dinner.

We hope you enjoy the selection.

What a beautiful wine to find out about the Mosel with! However, it really has a soul and a lot of depth at the very clean finish.

Pio Cesare Langhe Piodilei 2014 Italy, 94 Points

Interesting aromas of smoke, mineral and sliced peach. Hints of apple. Full body, fleshy yet racy with cream, nut and light dried apple. Tangy acidity. Always excellent.

150 ml / THB 1,190

75 ml / THB 595

Domaine De Chevalier Pessac-Léognan Blanc 2010 France, 99 Points

This is a remarkable wine with a density of fruit that reminds me of a Montrachet from a great vintage. It's full bodied, dense and rich -- almost oily -- but then it turns bright and fresh with a powerful backbone of acidity.

150 ml / THB 2,240

75 ml / THB 1,120

Dönnhoff Riesling Nahe Felsenberg "Felsentürmchen" Schlossböckelheim GG, 2015, 96 Points

Clearly the best dry wine I ever tasted from this great site! Perfectly ripe yellow peach nose with a delicate hint of smoke. Packed with ripe fruit, the muscularity of an Olympic sprinter, but this wine will go on and on long after those sprinters go into retirement.

The dazzling acidity turns the finish into a fireworks display of minerals.

150 ml / THB 1,470

75 ml / THB 735

Casanova di Neri Brunello di Montalcino Tenuta Nuova 2011, Italy, 94 Points

A red with earthy, meaty, salty, ripe fruit aromas and flavors. Full body with round, velvety tannins and a flavorful finish. So much richness and depth.

150 ml / THB 1,460

75 ml / THB 730

Knights Valley Les Pavots 2011 Peter Michael USA, 97 Points

Another great California Cabernet showing great finesse and balance. From hillside vineyards assuring fabulous quality.

150 ml / THB 1,800

75 ml / THB 900

Damilano Barolo Cannubi Riserva 1752 Vintage 2009 Italy, 98 Points

Lots of ripe berry character from the 2009 vintage with chocolate and cedar. Tobacco too. Full body, round and soft tannins and a light raisin and prune aftertaste. A big and juicy style. Decadent and sexy. Pretty crazy. One of the best 2009.

150 ml / THB 2,300

75 ml / THB 1,150

Roberto Voerzio Barolo Fossati Case Nere Riserva 10 Anni 2006 Italy, 96 Points

Aromas of tar and rose petal with dried strawberry and perfumes. Full-bodied, firm and silky with asphalt, spice and berry aftertaste. This has lived 10 years in the cellar and is just now coming around as it comes on the market.

150 ml / THB 2,500

75 ml / THB 1,250

Château Léoville Barton Saint-Julien 2010 France, 97 Points.

Aromas of pure blackberries and violets follow through to a full body, with super velvety tannins and a delicious balance of sweet fruit, light vanilla and nuts. Really savory and beautiful. Superb wine.

150 ml / THB 2,960

75 ml / THB 1,480

WHITE

Schiopetto Sauvignon Collio 2013

I love the sliced-apple and mineral character with lime and flint character. Some almond, too. Full body with bright acidity and a long, flavorful finish. As sauvignon should be from Collio.

A clean white that shows peaches, apricots and sliced apples. Medium to full body, a pretty texture and a lovely, crisp finish.

91 Points THB 2,970

La Spinetta Chardonnay Piemonte Lidia 2015

Plenty of smoky oak here, but the concentrated, dried-pear character takes it in its stride. Vibrant for a 2015 with a ton of energy at the long, clean finish.

93 Points THB 4,000

RED

Ornellaia Toscana Le Volte Dell'Ornellaia 2016

Blackberries and blueberries with hints of licorice and hazelnuts following through to a medium body with firm and silky tannins. A delicious finish. Juicy and savory.

Soft cherry, citrus peel, allspice and olive. Light styling with tender tannins. Juicy, savory and so delicious.

Very perfumed with chocolate, berries and spices. Some nuts, too. Full body, velvety tannins and a luscious finish. Extremely long and generous yet shows reserve.

95 Points THB 3,900

Cogno Barolo Cascina Nuova 2012

A firm and silky red with dried flower, delicate plum, cherry and stone. Medium to full body. Delicious after-taste.

ABOUT JAMES SUCKLING

James Suckling is one of today's leading wine critics, whose views are read and respected by wine lovers, serious wine collectors, and the international wine trade in general.

He is currently the wine editor for Asia Tatler Magazines and its nine luxury magazines in the region, including Hong Kong Tatler, Shangliu Tatler, Singapore Tatler, and Thailand Tatler.

However, most of his time is spent managing his own website, James-Suckling.com, as well as promoting his 100 Points wine glassware with Lalique, the famous French crystal house. He recently launched a limited edition wine briefcase with Lalique and Salvatore Ferragamo, the famous Italian fashion house.

Suckling spent nearly 30 years as Senior Editor and European Bureau Chief of American magazine The Wine Spectator, and as European Editor of Cigar Aficionado. On his departure from the magazines, Forbes called the Los Angeles-born writer "one of the world's most powerful wine critics."
