flavours, they can sip on a variety of imported Bavarian brews. The line-up includes Kloster Weltenburg Dunkel, Kloster Weltenburg Urtyp, Erdinger Urweisse, Erdinger Dunkel and Erdinger Oktoberfest, each one offered at the special price of THB 220 per 0.5-litre bottle.

With a range of different treats on offer during lunch and dinner, guests can grab a bite and beer before heading to the beach during the day or, as the sun sets, absorb the ambience of stunning Nai Harn Bay while they enjoy soothing tunes from the decks of the resort's new resident Thai DJ, LEEBREE, who spins his musical magic for an even more chilled holiday vibe. "The Nai Harn is known for its eclectic mix of world class cuisine and thanks to the enviable beachfront setting Rock Salt has become a favourite dining spot for hotel guests and Phuket residents," says the resort's General Manager, Frank Grassmann.

Transporting Bavaria's best-loved festival to Phuket, diners will be able to enjoy a range of traditional house-made German specialties, including Bratwurst, Rostbratwurst and Weißwurst, all created specially for The Nai Harn by guest master butcher Marc-Frederic Berry, who trained the kitchen team to prepare all the items in house and will also attend the events himself.

Other delectable specialties on the menu will include Schweinshaxe, or roasted pork knuckle, and Flammekueche, the famous white pizza from the south of Germany. More familiar German classics such as Chicken schnitzel, as well as a modern interpretation of Black Forest Gateau will add to the unique gourmet attractions.

An Oktoberfest celebration wouldn't be complete without Bavarian beers, and as diners soak up Rock Salt's seaside atmosphere and savour the German

About THE NAI HARN

THE NAI HARN offers the perfect blend of romance, adventure, indulgence and a genuine sense of heritage, perched above Thailand’s best beach*, ranged along a lush hillside at the southern tip of Phuket. The hotel offers dress circle seats to the greatest shown on earth – the spectacle of an Andaman sunset set against the dramatic promontory of Cape Promthep, best viewed from the four-poster day bed on your private 40sq m terrace, or from the re-born Rooftop Deck at our bucket list-worthy daily Magic Hour and Sunset Salutation Ritual. Phuket’s only hotel with a real sense of history has hosted luminaries from royals to heads of state to stars of stage and screen – where else but at THE NAI HARN can you take a luxury speedboat island hopping to James Bond Island ... while staying in the suite occupied by Roger Moore or Christopher Lee during filming of The Man with the Golden Gun? Offering guest rooms at least as capacious as the generous terraces and suites best described as sublime, THE NAI HARN has been completely redesigned to maximize its exceptional vistas. Minimally elegant with lavish touches and ‘ah’ moments, this comprehensive reimagining of Phuket’s first luxury resort infuses contemporary style with a Southern Thai aesthetic, setting the scene for destination experiences informed by authenticity and local knowledge, new adventures on roads less travelled, and culinary experiences that define excellence. www.thenaiharn.com
